

COVID-19 BBIA MEMBER SURVEY RESULTS

The Barrhaven Business Improvement Area encourages the members in our local business community to keep us informed on how we may best serve you through this incredibly challenging time. Our mandate is to find solutions to help businesses survive, stay open, and re-open once this crisis passes. Let's work together to maintain a successful business environment, here, in Barrhaven.

HERE'S WHAT YOU'VE TOLD US YOU NEED

Advocacy and lobbying with all levels of government for support NOW for small businesses specifically around operating costs (rent, utilities, tax credits and relief)

HERE'S WHAT THE BBIA IS DOING

Constant communication with all levels of government including city councillors, the mayor's office, MPs, MPPs, and Federal Ministers to ensure you are heard.

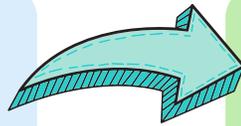

Information and the BBIA to keep up regular and timely updates including community resources, government updates, tax relief information, and tips for dealing with crisis

Daily emails with current updates and the development of a resource page for small & medium businesses. Find out more and sign up for daily updates at barrhavenbia.ca.

Keep channels of communication open amongst businesses. We are a great community of businesses and we can help each other out.

Weekly ZOOM calls for all members to share concerns and best practices. Calls will take place Wednesdays at 10am. Check out our daily emails for more information.

The BBIA to keep spirits up, promote options to support local businesses and highlight those that do remain open, and a post-crisis "back to business" campaign.

Launch of Barrhaven online shopping portal and continued sharing of businesses posts through Instagram. Large plans are in the works already for post-crisis campaign.

Continued outreach to each and every business to let them know that they are supported and that the BBIA will do everything possible to support them.

Working around the clock to connect personally with all businesses in membership. Don't hesitate to reach out either. Email info@barrhavenbia.ca.

The Barrhaven BIA continues to work tirelessly to meet the needs of our membership and we encourage you to continue to keep up to date with our updates and reach out if you need assistance or guidance through this evolving and challenging time.